1. Overview

This Privacy Notice explains what information is collected when you access or request Components from DynamicBits.

2. Information Collected

- Only the information you voluntarily provide (e.g., your name, email, project details) is collected.

- No unnecessary personal data is requested.

3. No Sharing of Personal Data

- Your personal information is never sold, shared, or distributed to third parties.

- Data is used solely for communication, delivery of Components, and basic service administration.

4. Data Storage

- Information is stored securely using standard industry practices.

- You may request deletion of your data at any time by contacting dynamicbits@worqbox.online.

5. Third-Party Services

If you use external platforms (e.g., payment processors, SketchUp extensions), their privacy policies apply separately.

6. Contact

For any privacy-related questions, contact dynamicbits@worqbox.online.
